Celebrity Bush Cook RANGER NICK

Who is Ranger Nick?

Often referred to as the guru of camp oven cooking, Ranger Nick is the master of keeping it simple. A true Australian bushman, he whips up a cracker of a meal with whatever is in the tuckerbox. He has gained quite a reputation as the entertaining Aussie Bush Cook, who sings and has plenty of yarns or poems to tell.

A former environmental education support officer from outback Queensland, Ranger Nick is putting his bush skills to use wherever his travels take him. When Ranger Nick is not cooking up a storm in the camp oven, he passes on his knowledge to fellow adventurers, or mentoring groups of youngsters, teaching them the art of bush survival, hunting and cooking.

A man of few words, Ranger Nick is never lost for words and his sense of humour in a true blue Aussie style draws crowds at his cooking demonstrations at various Camping, Outdoor, Home Shows, Expos and Festivals.

His first book has been released, containing mouth watering camp oven recipes, humorous bush tales and life experiences.

A true character, Ranger Nick leaves a lasting impression wherever he goes.
